

58th THESSALONIKI
INTERNATIONAL
FILM FESTIVAL
2-12.11.2017

REGULATIONS

- 10 Aristotelous Sq., 546 23 Thessaloniki, Greece. Tel 30-2310 378 400. Fax: 30-2310 285 759
 - 7 Dionysiou Areopagitou, 2nd Floor Athens, 117 42 Greece, Tel: 30-210 870 60 00. Fax: 30-210 644 81 43
 - e-mail: info@filmfestival.gr • URL: <http://www.filmfestival.gr>
-

REGULATIONS

ARTICLE 1: The “Thessaloniki International Film Festival” takes place every year in Thessaloniki. The Festival features the work of young film directors from all over the world, establishing Thessaloniki as a meeting place between filmmakers and Greek audiences. This year the 58th Festival is to be held from the 2nd to the 12th of November, 2017.

ARTICLE 2: The following sections are included within the framework of the Festival.

- Official international competition for first and second full-length feature films.
- An international informative section, Open Horizons, which is a panorama of films from around the world.
- An Out of Competition section for first and second films.
- The Greek Film Festival, official non-competitive section for Greek films produced in 2016-2017.
- Retrospectives and Tributes devoted to the work of new and leading international filmmakers.
- A special section dedicated to films from the Balkan region under the name “Balkan Survey”.
- A Special Screenings section.
- The Agora/Industry which includes the Agora Film Market, the Crossroads co-production forum and the Agora Works in Progress.

ARTICLE 3: The films that meet the following conditions are eligible to participate in the international competition section:

- is a director’s first or second feature film
- production must have been completed within the 18 (eighteen) months preceding the Festival screening
- has not been released or screened publicly in Greece
- must be in a standard DCP format
- has a running time of over 60 minutes

ARTICLE 4: The Artistic Director of the Festival selects and invites the films participating in all the sections of the Festival. He/she also schedules the screening timetable. In his/her selection work, the Artistic Director may be assisted by advisors of his/her choice. For the selection of the films DVDs and password-protected streaming URL links are accepted. DVDs are not returnable and they will be destroyed two months after the end of the Festival.

ARTICLE 5: In order to enter a film in the Festival, an entry form should be duly completed, containing the names of all the main contributors of the film, a brief synopsis, technical data and the director's biofilmography, as well as a declaration stating if it is a first or second film.

Films eligible for the informative section should have a running time of over 60 minutes.

Submission is subject to the payment of a registration fee of €25 Euros (including VAT). Films will only be considered for pre-selection when the Festival receives the fee.

After completing the submission form and if the film complies with the Festival regulations, the submitter will receive a notice within seven working days on how to proceed with the payment of the entry fee.

ARTICLE 6: Films can be submitted as DVD or via a password-protected streaming URL link screeners, but should be available to screen in DCP by October 14, 2017.

All URL links must remain active and accessible until November 13, 2017. A downloadable version of the film must be available on the same streaming link. Please prepare this link in before you start filling your online film entry form.

Submitted DVDs must contain the last version only of the film, in the original language of production, with English subtitles if the original language is not English.

The Festival reserves the right to either use electronic subtitles (not on the print).

If submitting DVDs, they should be addressed to:

Thessaloniki International Film Festival – Programme Department
7 Dionysiou Areopagitou, 2nd Floor, Athens, 117 42 Greece

ARTICLE 7: The Festival Board appoints five leading figures of the film industry to form the International Competition Jury. The Jury is composed of one Greek citizen and four foreign personalities from around the world. The President of the Jury, as well as his/her substitute, is appointed by the Director of the Festival.

The Director of the Festival may participate in the International Jury's meetings but has no vote. The Secretary of the Jury is selected by the Director of the Festival. The decisions of the Jury are made with open ballot, by simple majority.

Anyone having any connection with the films participating in the competition section cannot be part of the International Jury.

ARTICLE 8: The Jury must give out the following honorary awards:

- Best Full-length Feature Film Award (Golden Alexander)
- Special Jury Award (Silver Alexander)
- Special Jury Award for Best Director (Bronze Alexander)
- Best Actor Award
- Best Actress Award
- The Jury may also award a Best Screenplay Award or a Best Artistic Achievement Award
- The Jury may moreover award a maximum of two mentions.

Only one of these awards may be given ex aequo.

No more than three awards may be given to the same film.

It is understood that the Festival will not make any copies or digitalisation of the films without the consent of the producers or duly authorized representatives. It is also possible that these digital video copies will be screened at non-commercial, free venues, but only with the prior written consent of the films' producer or his/her duly authorized representative.

ARTICLE 9: Thessaloniki International Film Festival Film Market Video Library

During the Festival, unless otherwise requested by the rights holders, all films selected for the official program and a selection of films not included in the official Festival Program will be available for viewing through the Thessaloniki International Film Festival Film Market - Video Library closed circuit server for viewing on demand.

The Festival will use the submitted DVD/streaming URL link screener of each included film for this purpose, at its own cost. INTRANET (Local Network) will be used for screening, ensuring secure access to the Film Market Video Library films. This access is restricted to the Thessaloniki International Film Festival's guests who have Industry or Press accreditation. All data and back up DVDs will be destroyed by authorized TIFF technicians.

ARTICLE 10: No public screening in Greece of any of the films participating is permitted before the official screening organized by the Festival.

ARTICLE 11: The deadline for entry forms is July 20th 2017. The deadline for the arrival of the material described in article 5 and 6 of these regulations is July 27th, 2017.

ARTICLE 12: All transportation costs incurred in sending the print to and from Greece must be borne by the entity or individual(s) registering the film for participation. In case the shipment takes place to/from other festivals, standard practices of cost sharing will apply.

The Festival Organization will be liable for insuring the film once inside the Festival area, from the moment of its arrival to the Festival or its transport agent until its return.

Damage to the film print must be reported to the Festival in writing, within a month after its return and before its next screening. All the claims will be judged by the reported state of the print. The Festival's liability in case of whole or partial destruction of a 35mm print during the Festival cannot exceed the value of 3.000 Euros. The Festival liability in case of whole or partial destruction of and HDCAM or DCP cannot exceed 400 Euros. The liability of the Festival is limited to reimbursement of the replacement costs of a new print, as per the prices declared by the producer in the submission form. All other costs or liabilities are specifically excluded.

ARTICLE 13: The General Director of the Festival will rule in accordance with the international regulations on all points not foreseen in this document. In case of dispute, only the Greek version of the Festival's regulations is considered valid.

ARTICLE 14: Entry and participation of films implies unconditional acceptance of the regulations. In unspecified cases, the Festival Management will make a final decision.